RECURRING EVENTS

STEINATÚN AND NIELS FINSENSGØTA

Lights and wall decorations

The lights in the town are switched on every day from 5:00 PM, and it will also be possible to see exciting wall art featuring images by Elinborg Lützen.

The art installation can be seen on the wall at Niels Finsensgøta 17 (between Steinatún and LBF)

THE PARK

Unveiling of lights at the Huldu Grove

At Huldulitt, the woodland is transformed into a fairytale world where light, darkness, and legends meet.

The Huldre Grove becomes a gathering place for imagination, warmth, and shared experiences—both by day and by night.

PERLAN

Legends & Fairytales with Jákup Veyhe and hettarher

The event Legends & Fairytales will take place at Perlan on Saturday, February 7 at 4:00 PM and Sunday, February 8 at 3:00 PM, where children and adults come together for lively storytelling and a shared cultural experience.

Tickets are available at visittorshavn.fo/huldulitt

WILLIAMSHÚS

William Heinesen tour (FO and EN)

A guided tour will be held at William's House, where the guide will tell stories about William Heinesen and the elves and trolls from his works.

Visitors will also have the opportunity to explore William Heinesen's world and peek into his writing nook.

Tickets are available at visittorshavn.fo/huldulitt

Huldre walk

Join us on a journey through the woodland in the darkness, as stories are told about various ancient mythical beings and legends. You will also hear about customs and traditions connected to old Faroese folk beliefs.

We will carry petroleum lamps along the way, lighting the path and creating a magical atmosphere. Coffee, tea, and sweet treats will be served.

The Huldre Walk takes place on February 5 and 7 at 7:00 PM.

Tickets are available at visittorshavn.fo/huldulitt

RECURRING EVENTS

CEMETERY AT SVÍNARYGGI

Stories from the cemetery

Óli Jacobsen, author of the books “Hendur, ið sleptu” and “Petur Alberg”, will lead a guided tour in the cemetery at Svínaryggur. He will talk about the historical harbor workers and the important role Daniel Jacob Danielsen, Dollin, played in world history and human rights.

Tickets are available at visittorshavn.fo/huldulitt

CEMETERY AT SVÍNARYGGI

Story hunt at the cemetery

Pick up a treasure map from Visit Tórshavn in Steinatún and go on a history hunt! Find the answers to the questions by scanning the QR codes and reading the inscriptions on the gravestones.

Then return your treasure map to a Visit Tórshavn box for a chance to win great prizes

GÓMAGOTT

Drawing competition

All week there is a drawing competition for children at Gómagott.

Bring a drawing with you or sit in the café and create one. The drawings will be displayed in Steinatún, and the winner will receive a gift basket from Gómagott worth 500 DKK.

NATIONAL ART GALLERY

Lights installation and crafts

Create your own artwork inspired by the motifs of artist Elinborg Lützen.

At the children's tables, wooden boards with motifs are provided for making exciting pictures with oil pastels.

There will also be a light installation in the Winter Room, visible from the City Park, even when the Art Museum is closed

ULLVØRUHÚSIÐ

Huldre tales and magical moments

On Monday February 2, Thursday February 5, and Friday February 6 at 4:30 PM, Ullvøruhúsið welcomes children and inquisitive minds into a world of old tales, where Huldres, secret realms, and magical events come to life.

RECURRING EVENTS

THE NORDIC HOUSE

Lights installation at the Nordic House

Step into an enchanted world of light at Norðurlandahúsið, where Huldres, magical beings, and mysterious creatures come to life.

CITY LIBRARY

Huldre crafts

Scissors, paper, and templates are available on the first floor all week during Huldulitt. Just drop by and start cutting trolls and Huldres!

SMS

Lights installation at SMS

Pay close attention! Magical light decorations can be seen on the side facing R.C. Effersøesgøta. If you're lucky and quiet, a Huldre may even appear.

THE MARITIME MUSEUM

Explore at the Maritime Museum

Join us on February 2, 4, and 6 for an exploratory adventure in the dark and magical Sea Museum among fish and plants—and take part in a raffle to win a gift voucher for a sea sauna session for 4–6 people!

Diver Bogi Krosstein will swim in the large tank while music and darkness create a calm, fairytale-like experience.

Step into the “Sea Sauna” and see if you can guess the different scents of plant oils.

Admission:

- Adults: 60 DKK
- Children 5–14 years: 40 DKK
- Children 0–4 years: Free

Note: Bring a flashlight!

Tip: Join the Huldulitt Sea Sauna after the event by registering at saunagos.fo.

Come and experience the hidden atmosphere with us. We are serving a hidden menu these days, inspired by the magical world. In the house, you can see several works by William Heinesen, who writes a lot about Huldres, trolls, and elves. On the top floor, in Viggostova, you can find his paper cuttings of hidden folk.

Hidden menu (5 or 7 courses)

The Giant (7 courses)

- Harvest from the shore taken in twilight (Mussels)
- Stolen from the farmer's cellar (Pork, gravlax, dried ham with sides)
- Burnt porridge from the huldrewoman (Risotto croquettes)
- Sheep thief (Braised lamb shoulder with garlic and tomato)
- The Field "Taken from the fields in the middle of the night, glazed with honey, it will surely be good" (Glazed root vegetables with honey)
- Magic rhyme (Smoked cheese, cabbage, pear, and nuts with vinaigrette)
- Berry porridge with cream and old bread

The 5-course menu (The Witch) does not include the Magic Scroll and The Field.
